

Contents

Foreword Soo Downe	7
Introduction	9
Maternity care international perspectives: setting the scene Edwin van Teijlingen, Lucy Frith and Sarah Church
Chapter 1	19
The salutogenic approach to maternity care: from theory to practice and research Bengt Lindström, Marie Berg, Claudia Meier Magistretti, Mercedes Perez-Botella and Soo Downe
Chapter 2	30
Fetal screening in three countries from a complexity theory perspective Helga Gottfredsdóttir, Marianne Nieuwenhuijze and Lucy Frith
Chapter 3	55
Core outcomes in maternity care research Valerie Smith, Cecily Begley, Mechthild M. Gross and Declan Devane
Chapter 4	73
Capturing the complexity of practice as an insider: in-labour ethnography Jette Aaroe Clausen and Mário JDS Santos
Chapter 5	90
Innovations in practice: challenges involved in knowledge transfer Karin Minnie and Christa van der Walt

Chapter 6	107
A salutogenic perspective on maternity care for migrant women
Berit Viken, Marie-Clare Balaam and Anne Lyberg
Chapter 7	123
Migrant midwives: contributing to a different culture
Sarah Church and Olga Gouni
Chapter 8	140
Leadership development of nurses and midwives to improve maternal-child healthcare in Africa
Christa van der Walt and Karin Minnie
Chapter 9	151
Reflections on 'Getting Europe into Switzerland and Switzerland into Europe'
Swiss participation in COST Action ISCH 0907 from 2010 to 2014
Ans Luyben, Claudia Meier Magistretti, Barbara Kaiser, Irène Maffi and
Annette Kuhn
Chapter 10	170
Technology in childbirth: exploring women's views of fetal monitoring during labour – a systematic review
Valerie Smith, Cecily Begley and Declan Devane
Chapter 11	194
Normal birth research: the state of the art, and into the future
Soo Downe
Author biographies	198
Acknowledgements	204
Index	205